

Code of Conduct

*Integrity and honesty are expected.

*Students must show respect to each other and faculty at all times and if disrespect is shown a student may be asked to leave the class.

*No bullying, gossip, put downs or destructive criticism.

*Come to class ready to learn and with a positive attitude.

*Clean up after yourself at all times.

*Be respectful of studio property.

*The studio reserves the right to ask a student to leave for inappropriate behavior by him/herself or the parent.

*Appropriate attire must be worn at all times...this includes hair worn as per dress code and no jewelry (stud earrings are permitted).

*It is our objective to provide a pleasant, nurturing environment for all our students; to promote unity, leadership and a strong work ethic; to encourage students to help each other and most of all watch our students and your children grow into fine young men and women through the beauty of the art of dance.

Code of Conduct

*Integrity and honesty are expected.

*Students must show respect to each other and faculty at all times and if disrespect is shown a student may be asked to leave the class.

*No bullying, gossip, put downs or destructive criticism.

*Come to class ready to learn and with a positive attitude.

*Clean up after yourself at all times.

*Be respectful of studio property.

*The studio reserves the right to ask a student to leave for inappropriate behavior by him/herself or the parent.

*Appropriate attire must be worn at all times...this includes hair worn as per dress code and no jewelry (stud earrings are permitted).

*It is our objective to provide a pleasant, nurturing environment for all our students; to promote unity, leadership and a strong work ethic; to encourage students to help each other and most of all watch our students and your children grow into fine young men and women through the beauty of the art of dance.